Training Report: Athlete - Manu

Executive Summary

Manu has completed 17 sessions, accumulating a total of 990 points. Despite the need for improvement, Manu has shown glimpses of athletic potential. The recent performance data indicates inconsistent execution, with a high number of bad moves. The lack of participation in jump, squat, and push-up sessions is a significant concern.

Strengths and Areas of Excellence

1. Burpees: Manu has attempted 32 burpees across sessions, showcasing some level of strength and endurance.
2. Recent High-Scoring Session: Session 9 (104 points) demonstrates Manu's ability to execute exercises with minimal bad moves.
3. Consistency in Jumps: Although there are no dedicated jump sessions, Manu has consistently attempted jumps in recent sessions, totaling 34 jumps.

Areas Needing Improvement

1. Low Session Frequency: With only 17 sessions, Manu has not established a consistent training routine.
2. Lack of Exercise Variety: Manu has not participated in squat, push-up, or jump sessions, limiting overall athletic development.
3. High Number of Bad Moves: The recent performance data indicates a high number of bad moves, affecting overall scoring.
4. Leaderboard Position: Manu is not ranked on the leaderboard, indicating a need for improvement to compete at a higher level.

Exercise-Specific Analysis and Recommendations

1. Burpees:

- * Continue to prioritize burpees in sessions.
- * Focus on proper form and technique to minimize bad moves.
- * Aim for 3-4 sets of 10 burpees per session.

2. Jumps:

- * Incorporate dedicated jump sessions (2-3 times a week) to improve technique and consistency.
- * Focus on explosive power and proper landing techniques.
- * Aim for 3 sets of 10 jumps per session.

3. Squats:

- * Incorporate squat sessions (2-3 times a week) to improve strength and technique.
- * Focus on proper form and depth control.
- * Aim for 3 sets of 10 squats per session.

4. Push-ups:

- * Incorporate push-up sessions (2-3 times a week) to improve strength and technique.
- * Focus on proper form and engagement of core muscles.
- * Aim for 3 sets of 10 push-ups per session.

Performance Trends and Progress

1. Recent Performance: Manu's recent performance has been inconsistent, with high scores in some sessions and low scores in others.
2. Progress: Manu has shown some improvement in recent sessions, with a slight increase in scores and a decrease in bad moves.

Specific Training Recommendations for Next 4 Weeks

Week 1-2:

- * Incorporate 2-3 dedicated jump sessions per week.
- * Focus on proper form and technique in burpees, squats, and push-ups.

- * Aim for 3-4 sets of 10 repetitions per exercise.

Week 3-4:

- * Increase the frequency of squat and push-up sessions to 3 times a week.
- * Focus on proper form and technique in all exercises.
- * Aim for 4-5 sets of 12 repetitions per exercise.

Goal Setting and Targets

1. Short-Term Goal (Weeks 1-4): Increase session frequency to 3 times a week and focus on proper form and technique in all exercises.
2. Mid-Term Goal (Weeks 5-8): Achieve a consistent scoring average of 80 points per session.
3. Long-Term Goal (Weeks 9-12): Compete at a higher level on the leaderboard and demonstrate improvement in overall athletic performance.

By following these recommendations, Manu can improve overall athletic performance, increase session frequency, and establish a consistent training routine.
