Specific Training Recommendations for Next 4 Weeks

Week 1:

- * Complete 2-3 jump sessions, focusing on explosive power and technique.
- * Include 1-2 squat sessions, focusing on proper form and progressive overload.
- * Incorporate 1-2 push-up sessions, focusing on proper form and progressive overload.

Week 2:

- * Continue to focus on jumping ability, aiming to complete at least 50 jumps per session.
- * Increase squat and push-up sessions to 2-3 times per week, focusing on progressive overload and proper form.

Week 3:

- * Incorporate burpee sessions 2-3 times per week, focusing on proper form and technique.
- * Increase overall intensity and volume of training, aiming to complete at least 100 points per session.

Week 4:

- * Review and adjust training plan as necessary, focusing on areas of improvement identified in previous weeks.
- * Aim to complete at least 150 points per session, maintaining a high level of intensity and consistency.

Goal Setting and Targets

- * Short-term goal: Improve consistency in training, aiming to complete at least 3-4 sessions per week with a minimum of 100 points per session.
- * Mid-term goal: Improve jumping ability, aiming to complete at least 50 jumps per session.
- * Long-term goal: Achieve a performance grade of "Excellent," requiring a minimum of 150 points per session and consistent improvement in jumping, squatting, and push-up abilities.

By following this training plan and focusing on areas of improvement, Manu can work towards achieving their goals and improving overall performance.
